MISSION STATEMENT The people of God in West Orange were called by the Holy Spirit in 1914 to form Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, a community centered on Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit remains with us today as we continue our journey to God. We are inspired by the Gospel of Jesus Christ, nourished by the Eucharist, called to respect life and proclaim our Catholic faith. We serve God by providing spiritual, educational, and social activities for our parish family as well as extending God's love and compassion to serve the greater community.

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes,

As we consider Holy Week, I invite you to consider a verse from the Gospel of Luke – and a most unusual “meet up”

“Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over”.
(Luke 24)

In this gospel, the two disciples of this Gospel passage have had a most unusual day or series of days, most unsettling and disturbing because their Savior and Lord – Jesus – had been taken from them. They had seen him put to death.

And, in this Gospel passage we read of the two disciples – on the Road to Emmaus - to whom a mysterious “unknown” third traveler appears to them on the road. They do not know who it is – this person does not identify himself explicitly with a birth certificate or nametag. (The third traveler is Jesus, risen from the dead).

But at first the third traveler is seen only as a stranger whom they are gradually coming to know.

And, the two disciples are very attentive to this stranger. At first, they find him out of touch and uninformed. The mysterious third traveler said to them, “what were you talking about as you walked along?”

So, imagine if someone called you up right now and said to .... “hey, buddy, hey pal, what’s happening... what’s happening in the world.... What are you talking about...what are you thinking about?”

You would say to such a person: “What planet are you from? Did you just crawl out from under a rock? Don’t you know what’s going on in the world? ”

So, these two travelers heard a question, “What are you talking about?”

And, they said to the stranger, “Well are you the only person who does not know what is going on? .” And, they remind him that Jesus of Nazareth – mighty in word and deed has died.

Nevertheless, the two disciples welcome this third person, talk with him and share the events of the day with him. And, this person does connect with them – this unidentified person – this stranger shares with them their sorrow, their grief at the death of Jesus and then this third traveler starts to explain the scriptures and prophecies to them.

It is a reminder to us that God is – Jesus is – reaching out to us even when we do not explicitly acknowledge His presence.

Also, God hears us – in our current international crisis and fears - when we cry out saying... Lord, we need help, don’t you know what is going on here?

We also need each other for help.

This Holy Week, we gather to pray and remember our Lord’s Passion, Death, and Resurrection but do so in light of the Russia/ Ukraine crisis and others in the world.

We may – even in a time of crisis with more time on our hands struggle with prayer, not sure how to pray. These are some ideas..
Source: (<https://www.loyolapress.com/our-catholic-faith/prayer/personal-prayer-life/different-ways-to-pray/work-and-prayer-in-the-style-of-st-benedict>)

Instead of wondering how to squeeze prayer into the busy schedule of our work days, we are called to adopt a new vision in which all that we do is the work of prayer. Even as we go about our other business, we can bring our awareness to the spirit of the hour: (these could be petitions for each time of day)

- DAWN: Praise, gratitude, joy
- MID-MORNING: Blessing + communion w/ Holy Spirit
- NOON: Fervor, commitment, and a longing for peace at noon
- MID-AFTERNOON: sense of impermanence + willingness to forgive
- DUSK / EVENING: Serenity and healing
- NIGHT: Opening to the darkness

Time set aside for prayer can be a great blessing, but we can turn all of our daily tasks into prayer when we bring to them the awareness of ourselves in relationship with our ever-present God. (Source: See link above for Loyola Press)

METHOD FOR THE TIME - "STAY HERE"

Nevertheless, as children, we often did not like it when our parents said "stay here" ...while they went off to do something without us physically present.

"Stay here": that is a prayer request of Jesus Himself, to shelter in place in a Christian spiritual way so that he can talk to us exactly where we are.

Remember this extension of your family and also your church beyond your own walls. The family of the church also extends into your home, your table, your thoughts ... especially when you can also say to Jesus... "Stay with us for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." Jesus wishes to both meet up and move in with you.

Jesus has searched for you. He has found you. Go to Him, always.

Blessed Holy Week, Palm Sunday and Easter to you!

In Christ's Peace,
Father Jim Ferry
