This summer of 2020, First Holy Communion was celebrated for our parish children on several dates in July and August. If you would like to watch and pray, please see “First Holy Communion” Mass link on parish website LOURDESWESTORANGE.ORG.

This is an excerpt of my First Holy Communion homily for Mass. The Gospel was the Road to Emmaus in Luke Chapter 24.

Part 1. CROWD. FACIAL RECOGNITION.

Let's say you are standing in a crowd and reacting to everyone who is walking by, perhaps also searching for someone in the crowd.

I read that it turns out that we're good at recognizing people from their body language, stance and other physical cues that we can observe long before we see their faces (smile, eyes, nose, hair-style..) It's a good thing because now everyone is wearing masks and and it's hard to recognize people by their face alone.

The research, published the journal Psychological Science, looked at just how we rely on body language for identification. What they found was that we're actually just as good at recognizing people from faces as we are from other cues. “Accuracy in identifying the person without the face was identical to that in identifying the whole person,” the researchers write.

I remember an experience from many years ago when my family and I went to Yankee Stadium – where there was a very big crowd of people and we were meeting my uncle.

We had to wait and wait for a long time for him to arrive. And, there was a large crowd. I was “reacting to” everyone in the crowd.. I was very young and did not really know what to look for.

On the other hand, my father – who knew his brother quite well- recognized – from very far away – because they knew each other so well, he did not need to see his face ... he could recognize him by other characteristics...such as by how he walked.

And to all of our First Communion Children – to all of us – God does not recognize by just one characteristic but also by our total person and personality.

He loves you as you are and Jesus gives us not just words, not just a smile, but in the Sacrament of Holy Communion, we receive the whole person, Body of Christ.

Part. 2 Road to Emmaus Gospel

And, in this Gospel passage we read of 2 disciples to whom a mysterious “unknown” traveler appears to them on the road.

And, the two disciples are very attentive to this stranger, but they do not recognize him by his FACE or by his WALK. But they do later recognize him by his VOICE, by what he says.

So, these travelers heard a question, “What are you talking about?”

It is a reminder to us that God is – Jesus is – reaching out to us even when we do not explicitly acknowledge His presence. It is a reminder to us that Jesus wants to know what we are talking about what we are thinking about.

Nevertheless, the disciples welcome this third person, talk with him and share the events of the day with him. Yet, this person does connect with them – this unidentified person – this stranger shares with them their sorrow, their grief at the death of Jesus and then this third traveler starts to explain the scriptures and prophecies to them.

Part 3. Reconnection

A few years ago, I happened to see someone I grew up with in grade school and high school. I had not seen him in many years. At this social event, he was standing right next to 2 of my friends ...first I saw him from about 12 feet away. He was on the other side of the kitchen. I did not recognize him.

Then I walked right up to him. I still did not recognize him. Because I still looked confused. I actually needed someone to introduce me to him, to tell me his name. I was really surprised!

What was also interesting to me in that example as soon as my old friend started talking, then I recognized him. I recognized his voice actually more than I recognized his appearance.

This is also a reminder to us that when we feel that we are separated from someone, or upset with someone or judging someone only by appearance, one of the hardest things to do but most important things to do is to talk to them to really listen to them. By talking – by really listening – we come to know the whole person, and we can see and understand something we did not see at a distance.

In this episode on the Road to Emmaus, the disciples recognize Jesus’ voice. And remember his voice. It takes a while but this is an important part of our own prayer and connection to God, to hear his voice, to hear him speaking to us each day.

I pray that you, that I, that all of us will hear Him each day.

In Christ’s Peace,
Father Jim Ferry

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 22:19-23 Thus says the Lord to Shebna, master of the palace: "I will thrust you from your office and pull you down from your station. On that day I will summon my servant Eliakim, son of Hilkiah; I will clothe him with your robe, and gird him with your sash, and give over to him your authority. He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder; when he opens, no one shall shut, when he shuts, no one shall open. I will fix him like a peg in a sure spot, to be a place of honor for his family."

Responsorial Psalm 138:1-2, 2-3, 6, 8 (8bc)

do not for-sake the work of your hands.

I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with all my heart,
for you have heard the words of my mouth;
in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise;
I will worship at your holy temple. [R]

The Lord is exalted, yet the lowly he sees,
and the proud he knows from afar.
Your kindness, O Lord, endures forever;
forsake not the work of your hands. [R]

I will give thanks to your name,
because of your kindness and your truth:
when I called, you answered me;
you built up strength within me. [R]

Second Reading: Romans 11:33-36 Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How inscrutable are his judgments and how unsearchable his ways! For who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor? Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid? For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

Gospel: Mathew 16:13-20 Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi and he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.
