MISSION STATEMENT The people of God in West Orange were called by the Holy Spirit in 1914 to form Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, a community centered on Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit remains with us today as we continue our journey to God. We are inspired by the Gospel of Jesus Christ, nourished by the Eucharist, called to respect life and proclaim our Catholic faith. We serve God by providing spiritual, educational, and social activities for our parish family as well as extending God's love and compassion to serve the greater community.

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes,

(Due to the Parade on Main Street, there is no 11:30 am Mass on Sunday, March 13.)

This Sunday we read the Gospel of the Transfiguration of the Lord. In this Gospel episode, Jesus and Peter, James, John are at the top of a mountain. We read that ... Jesus led his disciples up a high mountain "by themselves. And was transfigured before them; His face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light ... Moses and Elijah were conversing with [Jesus]." (Matthew 17:1-3)

Peter, James, John, - observing this - fall to the ground and turn their eyes to the ground, in fear. The 3 apostles were seeing - in person - the divine identity of Jesus.

Earlier, Jesus had told them of the Passion and had predicted the events of the crucifixion, of which we read on Palm Sunday and Holy Week, that the Son of Man must suffer and rise from the dead. (cf. Matthew 16:21-23)

We read that the three apostles - Peter, James, and John - have climbed a mountain. They have a certain physical and optical visibility. They are at a higher altitude. However, they do not yet have this same altitude and visibility in a spiritual sense.

Yes, they were able to climb the mountain, stand on the mountain, even propose a construction project at the summit... But, in a spiritual sense, their vision is still developing.

There is correlation - a connection - between altitude and visibility. The higher our location, the further we can see.

Halfway up Fairmount Terrace or Moore Terrace in our neighborhood, we can see the New York skyline... but from Eagle Rock Reservation we can see the George Washington Bridge as well.

Power forwards and midfielders, jump higher to grab more rebounds and score more goals. High altitude is good news for those with the balance and vision.

Jesus says this, in his encouragement to his disciples and to you and me ... "Rise and do not be afraid" (Matthew 17:7)

Altitude brings visibility not only to one climbing a mountain but to any of us. Are we ready to raise, to accept the altitude, the greater visibility?

For example, in the examination of our lives, the examination of our consciences, we are called to identify specific moments and times of sin and sinfulness.

At the same time, in the sacrament of penance/reconciliation - we also ask the Lord for new vision ...to see not only the effects but also the causes of sin in our lives. At a higher altitude of God's grace, we see more clearly.

Furthermore, in the examination of our lives, we may be tempted to compare ourselves with others ... physically ... materially ... rather than recall that spiritually, we are all equal before God.

I compare my strengths or my statistical achievements (whether it is an achievement in finances or in winning percentage). I may compare my successes and failures with others.

However, as St. Therese of Lisieux writes, that while we are praising (praying) we are not supposed to be appraising ourselves. Examining our lives, honestly, we are not comparing ourselves to others, but simply striving to do God's will.

Full Quote: "For me prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy." (Catholic Catechism 2558, St. Therese of Lisieux, Manuscripts autobiographiques C 25r.)

We are trying to see a new horizon and time horizon which is not the fiscal year, the academic year or the Fall and Spring semester ... but rather eternal life.

Going up, turning our eyes and hearts up - altitude - is good news.

We are also called to the same service and love to recognize the new height - the new altitude to which we are called.

Altitude and visibility are good news.

In Christ's Peace,
Father Jim Ferry
