MISSION STATEMENT The people of God in West Orange were called by the Holy Spirit in 1914 to form Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, a community centered on Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit remains with us today as we continue our journey to God. We are inspired by the Gospel of Jesus Christ, nourished by the Eucharist, called to respect life and proclaim our Catholic faith. We serve God by providing spiritual, educational, and social activities for our parish family as well as extending God's love and compassion to serve the greater community.

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes,
This Sunday we observe Corpus Christi Sunday, the Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Pope Francis wrote about the Holy Eucharist, inviting all of us to consider communion, community, sharing, a sharing to which all the early disciples were also called:

What do the disciples share? The little they have: five loaves and two fish. However it is those very loaves and fish in the Lord's hands that feed the entire crowd. And it is the disciples themselves, bewildered as they face the insufficiency of their means, the poverty of what they are able to make available, who get the people to sit down and who – trusting in Jesus' words – distribute the loaves and fish that satisfy the crowd. And this tells us that in the Church, but also in society, a key word of which we must not be frightened is "solidarity", that is, the ability to make what we have, our humble capacities, available to God, for only in sharing, in giving, will our life be fruitful.

"God's solidarity" ... is never depleted, a solidarity that never ceases to amaze us: God makes himself close to us, in the sacrifice of the Cross he humbles himself, entering the darkness of death to give us his life which overcomes evil, selfishness and death. Jesus, this evening too, gives himself to us in the Eucharist, shares in our journey, indeed he makes himself food, the true food that sustains our life also in moments when the road becomes hard-going and obstacles slow our steps. And in the Eucharist the Lord makes us walk on his road, that of service, of sharing, of giving; and if it is shared, that little we have, that little we are, becomes riches, for the power of God – which is the power of love – comes down into our poverty to transform it.

Do I let the Lord who gives himself to me, guide me to going out ever more from my little enclosure, in order to give, to share, to love him and others? (Corpus Christi Homily, 30 May 2013).

The ministries and community of our parish are also manifested in sharing, in gifts. We recognize this explicit nature of this sharing when we are giving ourselves charitably, when we are teaching the Gospel, evangelizing, feeding the hungry.

Yet, it is also true in our own individual examinations that we are sharing. For example, to come before the Blessed Sacrament – on Corpus Christi – and every day, our "retreat" is also an act of generous sharing, an opening of our hearts to God's ways and our ears to God's voice.

In Christ's Peace,

Father Jim Ferry

Corpus Christi

Corpus Christi is a feast day that celebrates the belief and the tradition of the transubstantiation of Christ's body and blood to bread and wine in the Eucharist Sacrament.

History

Corpus Christi was first enacted by a Premonstratensian canoness named Juliana of Liège, who was looking for a way to revere the Blessed Sacrament outside of Lent. She was further driven to action when she noticed a dark spot on the moon while she was pondering the idea and took that as a sign that signified the absence of such a solemnity. She then had a vision of Christ in 1208 and this drove her fervor even more. Over the next two decades, she continued to have these visions until she confessed them to her priest, who then passed on the vision to the bishop. Bishop Robert would eventually go on to convene a synod in 1246, and it is there that he decreed that the celebration should begin the following year. It was celebrated the first time the following year at St. Martin at Liège.

Customs And Celebrations

There are many different customs associated with this Feast Day, and some of them are fairly unique. Most of the celebrations that are held around the world feature some sort of parade or pageant on that day, the details of which varies according to locality. For instance, in many parts of Central Europe large bouquets of flowers and wreaths are placed at homes and in fields. In the Hill Neighborhood of St. Louis, Missouri, there is often a blessing of the neighborhood that occurs on this day. And in other parts of the world there are colorful pageants where participants dress up as people from the Bible.

Conclusion

The rite of Corpus Christi not only honors the death and celebrates the resurrection of Jesus Christ, but it is also an important feast day that allows all participants to stand in awe of the power of the Eucharist and the belief in the resurrection of Christ.
