MISSION STATEMENT The people of God in West Orange were called by the Holy Spirit in 1914 to form Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, a community centered on Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit remains with us today as we continue our journey to God. We are inspired by the Gospel of Jesus Christ, nourished by the Eucharist, called to respect life and proclaim our Catholic faith. We serve God by providing spiritual, educational, and social activities for our parish family as well as extending God's love and compassion to serve the greater community.

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Our Lady of Lourdes, Blessed Christmas to you, as we observe, the Baptism of the Lord, the final feast day of our Christmas liturgical season, on Sunday January 9, 2022.

The sacrament of Baptism reminds us that the home and church complement each other in important ways. A praying family is called together to unite in both locations and to unite for the good of the child and children being brought forward.

We learn to pray and sacrifice at home, to continue elements of worship. Similarly, we also enter into friendship and spiritual intimacy with those in our parish by coming together in worship. Thus, while we receive the rites of Catholic initiation at church, our sacramental life and worship extends to our homes and families. In both locations, we come home to God and to each other.

Pope Paul VI, writing about Nazareth and the Holy Family, reminds us that our spiritual education is ongoing writing that “education in the Gospel is never finished.” Paul VI observe that we can learn several ideals by observing the portrayals of Nazareth to us in the Gospel. This teaches us about both the home and the church.

SILENCE. Very little is written explicitly about Christ’s home life in Nazareth. The details are spare and muted. The pope wrote: “The silence of Nazareth should teach us how to meditate in peace and quiet, to reflect on the deeply spiritual and to be open to the voice of God’s inner wisdom.” (Paul VI, Address in Nazareth, 5 Jan 1964)

FAMILY. Paul VI observed that the family is “a community of love and sharing, beautiful for the problems it poses and the rewards it brings; in sum, the perfect setting for rearing children.” (Address in Nazareth)

DISCIPLINE/WORK. Paul VI observed that in Nazareth, we see the home of a craftsman and laborer, Joseph. Jesus learned both routines and regulation from Joseph. Paul VI wrote that such work is “demanding yet redeeming ... [it] has its own dignity. On the other hand, it is not an end in itself.” Paul VI reminds that all our work, then, serves the greater good – and the Greatest Commandment – to love God and neighbor. (Address in Nazareth)

In his own reflections on the family, Pope John Paul II wrote this about the role of the family and church, describing the family as the “domestic Church”:

“Thus the little domestic Church, like the greater Church, needs to be constantly and intensely evangelized: hence its duty regarding permanent education in the faith...the family, like the Church, ought to be a place where the Gospel is transmitted and from which the Gospel radiates...the future of evangelization depends in great part on the Church of the home” (John Paul II, Familiaris Consortio, nn. 51-52).

In Christ’s Peace,
Father Jim Ferry

HOLY THEOPHANY

The Baptism of Our Lord

(Tone 1)

When Thou, O Lord was baptized in the Jordan,
the worship of the Trinity was made manifest
for the voice of the Father bore witness to Thee, and called Thee His beloved Son.

And the Spirit in the form of a dove confirmed the truthfulness of His word.
O Christ our God who has revealed Thyself
and has enlightened the world, glory to Thee!
